THE HOUSE WE LIVE IN.

We heard a man say, he cared little what he ate, so there was plenty of it. What a shabby conception of the house he lived in. A palace and a hovel were all the same to him. Another class are as blindly careless of the outside. In either case a man cheats himself The recovering of a house should look well and do well. FRIDAY EVENING, AUGUST 15, 1884.

NONE of the mud thrown at Blaine seems to stick.

REPUBLICAN county convention Saturday, August 30th, when the winning ticket will be nominated.

DEMOCRATS do not favor protection in any form. They will not even protect the name and reputation of their candidate.

COME out and help dedicate the Republican headquarters to night. There will be a good speech by Hon. George Hunt, good music by the drum corps and glee club, and an interesting time all round.

WHILE everything betokens the success of Blaine and Logan it will not do for Republicans to sit down idly and wait confidently for victory. No battle was ever won that way. Activity, vigilance, perseverance—these are the watchwords of success.

EMERY A. STORRS has gotten off a definition of Cleveland: "The Democratic candidate," he says, "is a man with a 19½ collar a No. 7 hat, a No. 11 boot, a bachelor married upon the European plan, with his domestic relations served a la carte."

THE Chicago letter, on our fourth page, written by Mr. Bert Stewart, of this city, will be read with great interest. Mr. S. is a graphic writer, and being a prohibitionist in his sympathies, will lend additional interest to his letter, especially as he does not seem to think much of Elder Hobbs.

W. J. GLEASON, of Cleveland, who declared for Blaine and Logan a few weeks ago, was elected permanent secretary of the Irish Convention at Boston yesterday. Perhaps there is no political significance in this, but it shows that to profess Republicanism is not considered a great sin among Irish Americans nowadays.

A PARAGRAPH of personal gossip devoted to Roscoe Conkling says that he has become one of the most genial and brightest men in society and in club life in New York City; that his friends often hear his ringing laugh, and that he is a gay and light hearted gentleman since leaving politics. The report is probable, from the fact that he has recently said some pleasant things about Mr. Blaine.

THINGS with the name of Cleveland attached to them get considerably mixed nowadays. The other day something was said about "Cleveland's increase of population," and it had to be explained that the city of Cleveland was meant. It is now stated in one breath that "Cleveland may withdraw," and that "Cleveland will not disband." The first has reference to the Democratic Presidential candidate, and the second to a base-ball club. It is also declared that "Cleveland will be against Cleveland," and this has reference to a city down in Tennessee.

A TERRIBLE scandal has been going the rounds of the press concerning Grover Cleveland; direct accusations have been made, names and dates of scandalous acts of his have been given, under all of which that poor statesman has maintained the most discreet silence. His friends have made half-hearted denials and silly defenses, no two of them alike, and the public has been left to draw its own conclusions from the charges made and the evidence offered. How different has been the course of Mr. Blaine under similar provocation. As soon as he saw the vile story published with reference to himself and his family he invoked the aid of the telegraph to pronounce the whole thing "utterly and abominably false in every statement and implication," and directs that suit for libel be brought against the responsible publisher "without an hour's delay." It is refreshing to observe the difference between the course of the two candidates. One by his silence tacitly admits the truth of the fearful charges against him—the other loses not a moment in proclaiming the falsity of the accusation and ordering the commencement of legal proceedings against his accusers. The difference will be readily observed by a discriminating public.

CHICAGO News: Mr. Blaine has been prompt to instruct Senator Harrison to bring a suit for libel against the Indianapolis Sentinel for an infamous attack upon the honor of his family. Whatever may be the facts of the case, there can be no question that the whole Nation, without distinction of party, will applaud Mr. Blaine's action, and will be gratified if Senator Harrison, as he promises, shall press the suit to a speedy trial.

GROVER CLEVELAND is growing stronger among the masses of intelligent voters every day.—N. Y. Herald.

Yes, he is. And if he grows much stronger there will be a great demand for chloride of lime.—Ex.

$50,000 LIBEL SUIT.

James G. Blaine Sues the Indianapolis Sentinel for Slander.

The Missouri Democracy in State Convention Assembled Complete Their Labors and Adjourn Without Day.

Missouri Greenbackers, Illinois Anti-Monopolists — Nominations for Congress.

Blaine Will Defend His Wife's Honor—A Manly Letter.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., August 14.—On the 8th inst., the Indianapolis Sentinel contained an editorial, charging that James G. Blaine seduced his wife before marriage, and then only married her at the muzzle of a shot-gun. This paper was forwarded to Blaine's Secretary, and this morning the following was received.

BAR HARBOR, ME., August 14.

To the Editor of the Indianapolis Times:

I have this moment received the atrocious libel of the Indianapolis Sentinel. The story is utterly and abominably false in every statement and in every implication. Political slanders I do not stop to notice, but this editor assails the honor of my wife and my children.

I desire you, without an hour's delay, to employ a proper attorney and have the responsible publishers of the Sentinel sued for libel in the United States District Court of Indiana. It is my only remedy and I am sure that honorable Democrats alike with honorable Republicans will justify me in defending the honor of my family, if need be, with my life.

[Signed] JAMES G. BLAINE.

Holloway at once placed the case in the hands of Senator Ben Harrison, and suit will be commenced immediately.

Ben. Harrison, Counsel for James G. Blaine, Sues for $50,000.

INDIANAPOLIS, IND., August 15.—Nothing has occurred since the death of Garfield that has created so much excitement as the request of James G. Blaine to Mr. Holloway to commence suit for libel against the Indianapolis Sentinel. Senator Harrison filed the complaint late yesterday afternoon, demanding $50,000 damages, and notice will be served on Mr. Shoemaker, of the Sentinel, to-day. The Republicans uphold Mr. Blaine's prompt and manly action, and say that the case must be tried at an early day, before the fall election.

Mr. Shoemaker, it is said, will begin a vigorous fight on Mr. Blaine, and will to-day publish all the Mulligan letters, and will attempt to elicit the sympathy of the Democratic party in his fight, but leading Democrats here declare that the Democratic committees will keep out of the row. It is expected that Mr. Blaine will visit the city when the case is tried.

MISSOURI DEMOCRACY.

They "Have Finished the Fight and Kept the Faith."

JEFFERSON CITY, MO., August 14.—The Convention sat all night and adjourned shortly after six o'clock this morning.

W. T. DOWNING,

of Scotland County, was nominated for Railroad Commissioner.

He was nominated on the fourth ballot—his only opponent being Albert O. Allen, of Jackson.

ELECTORS-AT-LARGE.

The next business was the selection of two electors-at-large, which was soon accomplished, owing to the worn-out condition of the delegates. Six candidates were named. Hon. Henry C. Brokmeyer, of St. Louis, General James Craig, of St. Joseph; Judge J. J. Lindley, of St. Louis; Wm. M. Rush, of Daviess, and J. C. Travers, of Green. The ballots resulted in the almost unanimous choice of Henry C. Brokmeyer and General James Craig.

ADJOURNED SINE DIE.

All business having been completed the convention adjourned at six o'clock this morning after nearly a continuous session of twenty-two hours.

Missouri Greenbackers.

ST. LOUIS, MO., August 14.—The Greenbackers of the Ninth Congressional District will have a grand Butler and West rally at Chouteau avenue hall this evening. One of the purposes of the meeting will be the election of delegates to the Kansas City Convention, which assembles on the 26th inst. Colonel F. J. Underwood, of Springfield, Mo., will speak. There will another grand rally of Greenbackers to indorse the nominees of the State Convention, at Lucas Market, Tuesday, August 26th. It is understood that the State Convention will do nothing looking to coalition with the Republican party. While they do not expect to elect their ticket, they feel that any vote cast for it will strengthen the anti-monopoly cause. The members of labor unions will vote for Ben Butler as a rule, but as the Constitutions of many of the unions forbid interference in politics no general action will be taken by the labor element. The probability is that Hon. Nicholas Ford, of Buchanan County, will be nominated for Governor, at Kansas City, although T. M. Pence and Henry Eshbaugh are also mentioned. The Greenbackers are determined to make a vigorous and spirited campaign.

PEORIA CONVENTION.

The Democrats of the Tenth (Ill.) District Nominate a Congressman.

PEORIA, ILL., August 14.—The Democratic Congressional Convention for the Tenth District met at ten o'clock yesterday morning, and was a short affair. It was called to order by T. L. Frazier, of Fulton County, member of the Congressional Committee, and Dr. J. W. Hinsdee was made temporary chairman, and James S. Higgins, temporary secretary. They were afterward made the permanent officers. Instead of the regular Committee on Credentials being appointed, the credentials were simply handed to the secretary and a full delegation found present.

Mr. Graham, of Oneida, Knox County, presented the name of Nicholas E. Worthington in a few well-chosen remarks, and W. D. Ryan seconded the nomination.

As there was no other nomination, it was moved and carried by a rising vote that the nomination of Worthington be made unanimous.

FOR its soothing and grateful influence on the scalp, and for the removal and prevention of dandruff, Ayer's Hair vigor has no equal. It restores faded or gray hair to its original dark color, stimulates the growth of the hair, and gives it a beautiful, soft, glossy and silken appearance. 11

COLONEL ROBERT G. INGERSOLL, who is in Portland, Oregon, on a lecturing tour, said to a reporter yesterday: "You may write down that I do not intend to take part in the Presidential campaign. There is no necessity, because I believe Blaine will be elected. If what is said of Cleveland is true, he should promptly withdraw from the field. No man who is not a gentleman should be elected President. The office should be held only by honest, intelligent, manly men. I believe that Blaine is in all respects fit to be the Chief Executive of this Nation."

There were loud calls for Worthington, and that gentleman responded by appearing on the platform. He thanked the delegates representing the Democracy of the Tenth District for the high honor conferred upon him; referred to his nomination two years ago at which time he had said that while enthusiastically devoted to the principles of the Democracy, yet differences of opinion in regard to public matters might arise even within the ranks of the party, and in such case he should exercise the right which belonged to the humblest citizen of thinking and voting as his best judgment dictated. This he had done in some instances in opposition to the majority of the party while in Congress, and he considered this nomination, bestowed in such a flattering manner, the indorsement of his independent course in Congress. He claimed that now with his experience he would make a better representative than before or than any new man. He promised a thorough canvass of the district between now and November.

R. E. Perkins, of Fulton was unanimously nominated for member of the State Board of Equalization.

A. J. Bell, present State Senator, was then renominated, and Edward Tellman, of Peoria and Wm. McLean, of Chillicothe nominated for State Representative.

Greenback Anti-Monopolists.

BLOOMINGTON, ILL., August 14.—There is some commotion in the ranks of the Greenback anti-monopoly party of Illinois. Two calls have been issued for the holding of a State Convention in this city. One call is signed by Z. Waters, chairman of the anti-monopoly State Committee, and Jesse Harper, of the National Committee for holding a convention on the 19th inst., the other by A. H. McKeighan, who is not a supporter of Butler, and who has called a State Convention on the 27th. It is thought that the two factions will come together and meet in convention on the 19th.

THE ANTI-MONOPOLISTS.

Proposed Union of Butler's Friends Under One Name.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 15.—About a dozen members of the State Committee of the Anti-Monopoly party met in Congress Hall yesterday afternoon. The meeting was secret. Late last night the committee gave out the following, which was adopted at the conference:

WHEREAS: It is important that the agricultural, labor, commercial and other classes who believe in the principles upon which our Government was founded—the right of all rather than the privileges for the few—should unite upon a people's unity Butler electoral ticket in this State. It is therefore

Resolved, That this Conference appoint a committee of persons with power to confer with a committee of the Greenback-Labor party and other organizations in this State, and select a Union Butler electoral ticket, which will represent all such organizations and interests.

Resolved, That this body suggest that the name "Peoples party" be adopted by the various organizations who will unite for the support of General Butler, and that the President of the Anti-Monopoly League be requested to submit this matter to the National and Anti-Monopoly committee for the consideration at the session of this date.

A HOPELESS FIGHT.

Fourteen Hundred Ballots and No Nomination.

BALTIMORE, MD., August 15.—After having taken 1,400 ballots for a Congressional nominee, the Democratic Convention of the Second District last evening adjourned until to-day without having reached a result. Last week 1,858 fruitless ballots were taken at Elkton, when it was decided to adjourn to meet in Baltimore yesterday. There is no indication that the dead-lock will soon be broken, the vote now standing as it did on the first ballot. Talbot, 10; Shaw, 5; Hopkins, 5.

A Doubting Thomas.

NORFOLK, VA., August 15.—Senator Thos. F. Bayard, Governor Stockley of Delaware, and other celebrities from that State have been enjoying a cruise on a pilot boat for some time past, and called here to-day. To a United Press reporter the Senator said he did not believe the Cleveland scandal and regarded it as a very unholy method of warfare. He will enter the campaign later and expects to take an active part in the canvass.

A Fair Field and No Favors.

CHATTANOOGA, TENN., August 15.—At the Republican Convention at Cleveland, Tenn., yesterday, Hon. H. C. Evans, of Hamilton County, was nominated to represent the Third Congressional District in the Lower House of Representatives. It is believed John J. Littleton, Independent Democrat, will withdraw from the race leaving a clear fight for the Democratic and Republican nominees.

By Acclamation.

OLNEY, ILL., August 15.—The Democratic Senatorial Convention of this, the Forty-fourth district, met at the Courthouse in this city yesterday, and nominated Hon. J. I. McCalley, of Clay County, for Senator, and Joseph Skevington, of Edwards County, and Edward McClung, of Wayne County, for Representatives by acclamation. The ticket is conceded to be a strong one, and will add greatly to the Democratic majority throughout the district.

St. John at a Temperance Meeting.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 14.—At the annual camp meeting of the Lyons Prohibition Association of St. John Circuit yesterday, addresses were made by John Sobieska, of Missouri, and Miss Ella A. Boole, of Brooklyn, who spoke on "The Representative voter and his vote." Ex-Governor St. John, of Kansas, delivers an address this afternoon.

Used His Knife.

ALTON, ILL., August 15.—At North Alton, a suburb of this city, George Norris was attacked by Pink and Will Giles. He used a knife on his adversaries, inflicting some slight wounds on Will Giles and slashing Pink Giles in the abdomen. He then surrendered himself for trial and was released without bail.

ORIGIN OF AMMONIA.

Ammonia is obtained in large quantities by the putrefaction of the urine of animals.—Encyclopedia Brittannica.

Every housekeeper can test baking powders containing this disgusting drug by placing a can of the "Royal" or "Andrews' Pearl" top down on a hot stove then remove the cover and smell.

Dr. Price's Cream Baking Powder does not contain Ammonia, Alum, Lime, Potash, Bone Phosphates. Prove it by the above test. It is prepared by a Physician and Chemist with special regard to cleanliness and healthfulness.

AN O'ER TRUE TALE.

What the Disinterment of Lieutenant Kislingbury's Remains Disclosed.

The Skin and Flesh Entirely Removed From Many Portions of the Body, But no Bones Broken.

Private Whistler's Body to be Exhumed To-day by Members of His Family.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 15.—The disinterment of Lieutenant Fred Kislingbury's body, of Arctic fame, from its grave in Mount Hope Cemetery was made here yesterday with the consent and in the presence of W. and John P. Kislingbury, brothers of the deceased. The disclosures resulting from a subsequent autopsy are of the most revolting character. Lieutenant Kislingbury's relations had become filled with horrible doubts on reading the sensational stories recently published regarding cannibalism among the starving members of the Greely expedition, and they determined to learn the truth by exhuming the remains and having them examined by competent physicians. Doctors Charles Buckley and F. A. Mandeville yesterday afternoon made public their sworn statement as to the post mortem examination, which was witnessed by eight persons. The massive iron casket was first removed as unearthed to the cemetery chapel, where the fifty-two iron bolts which secured the cover were unscrewed. An unusual circumstance was the absence of foul gas in the coffin, proving that no decomposition had set in. The mass of snowy cotton waste was then removed from the lower portion of the dead man's body. The right limb was missing from its socket, and was found to be fastened under the left one. When the enshrouded form had been lifted from its receptacle, two large spots of blood were seen where the body had rested, but they were pronounced a common occurrence at burials. The body was packed in cotton batting and wrapped in cotton cloth tied with strings. Within this covering was another, consisting of a single woolen blanket. No wounds were visible on the head, although the eyes were sunken and wasted. The hair was thick and from five to six inches long, the face being covered with a heavy reddish beard and mustache. The skin and muscles of the face and neck were intact, but from the upper portion of the sternum and clavicle to the fifth rib the skin and muscles had been removed on both sides. The skin and flesh were entirely removed from both thighs and legs excepting the skin upon the knee and ankle points. Both feet were intact, and no bones had been broken. There was no vestige of integument or flesh upon other arm, the interosseus membrane of the right forearm alone remaining. Flesh and muscles on both hands were found well preserved. The examination of the posterior portion of the body showed that the skin and muscles of the back had been cut completely away down to the bones with the exception of a few pieces of skin. The pelvic bones were entirely denuded, and all the extremities were attached to the body by ligaments only. All the organs of the abdominal and thoracic cavity were present, and there were no signs of recent inflammation in the stomach or bowels. Hardened lumps of feecal matter distended the large intestines, composed of hair moss and woody fibre.

It is the opinion of Doctors Buckley and Mandeville that the flesh had been cut away with a sharp instrument, and that remaining of the feet, hands and face showed no signs of decay. The remains were fully identified as those of Lieutenant Kislingbury.

Another to be Exhumed.

LAFAYETTE, IND., August 15.—A representative of the Associated Press yesterday visited the cemetery and vicinity in which William Whistler, late member of the Greely expedition is buried, in Carroll County, five miles from any town. It was found that the father and grandfather of Whistler are preparing to exhume the body to learn as to the truth of the reports of cannibalism. The friends of young Whistler had determined on opening the burial casket at the time of burial, but were kept off by the telegrams of General Hancock. The body will be exhumed to-day or to-night. The aged grandfather of young Whistler says the truth must be known about Private Whistler.

TWO OF A KIND.

Carriages Demolished by Passenger Trains—Killed and Injured.

ELKTON, MD., August 15.—A carriage in which John Lynn, wife and daughter were returning home from Wilmington was struck by a locomotive on the Newark & Delaware City Railroad, Glasgow Crossing, and entirely demolished. Mrs. Lynn was probably fatally injured, her husband severely bruised and hurt, and their daughter instantly killed.

As Joseph B. Richardson and his sister-in-law, Mrs. Hannah Hoagland, of North East, were crossing the railroad near here yesterday their carriage was struck by a passenger train and knocked to splinters. Mrs. Hoagland was injured so badly that her death is momentarily expected. Mr. Richardson was seriously hurt.

Revolt in the Kentucky State Prison.

FRANKFORT, KY., August 15.—A desperate attempt was made to escape from the Penitentiary yesterday by a gang of convicts. The prisoners overpowered the guard and captured a stand of arms. The alarm was sounded to the prison guards and a fierce battle ensued, during which 100 shots were fired. The Sheriff was notified and summoned the military and two hundred citizens, who quelled the outbreak. Several persons were wounded. John R. Wolf, a convict, fatally. Three desperate murderers, named Alsop, Grant and Cash Graves escaped. The Sheriff with a large posse are in pursuit.

Horribly Mangled.

HOUSTON, TEX., August 15.—Last evening a freight train ran into a hand-car containing John Gray, section foreman, his wife and two little girls and three section men. They all jumped from the hand-car except Mrs. Gray and her two little girls, aged four and seven. Mrs. Gray was badly bruised and the entire train passed over the children, cutting off both legs of the older and one leg of the other. They will not recover.

Explosion of a Locomotive.

DECATUR, IND., August 15.—A freight engine on the Grand Rapids & Indiana Road exploded at 12:30 yesterday afternoon, about one mile north of this place, injuring the engineer, fireman and one brakeman. The fireman is not expected to live. The engineer and brakeman are badly hurt, but it is thought not mortally.

THE TURF.

Monmouth Park Races.

The racing yesterday at Monmouth Park was particularly interesting, and attracted a large crowd. The track was in excellent condition.

First Race — Maiden, two-year-olds, three quarter mile: St. Augustine, first; Glenallen Filly, second; Emir, third. Time, 1:16 1-2.

Second Race—Free handicap sweepstake, one mile and a half furlong: Economy, first; Buckstone, second; Reel and Toe, third. Time, 1:51.

Third Race—The Omnibus stakes for three-year-olds, mile and a half: Mint Colt, first; Bob Cook, second; Rataplan, third. Time, 2:40 1-2.

Fourth Race—Free handicap sweepstakes, one and one quarter miles: Louisette, first; Arauza, second, Blue Bell, third. Time, 2:10 1-2.

Fifth Race—Three-year-olds and upwards, one and one eighth miles: Dan K., first; Swift, second; Clonmel, third. Time, 1:57 1-4.

Sixth Race—Handicap steeple chase over the short course: Trombone, first; Echo, second; Response, third. Time, 3:15.

Rochester Races.

ROCHESTER, N. Y., August 15.—The third day's races were witnessed by fully 1,000 people.

First Race—2:23 class; purse of $1,500 divided: Felix, first; Walnut, second; Stephen C., third. Best time, 2:20 3-4.

Second Race—2:17 class, $2,000 divided: Phyllis, first; Clemmie G., second; Witherspoon, third. Best time, 2:13 1-2.

Third Race—The free-for-all pacing race, $1,500 divided: Billy S., first; Falky, second; Richball, third. Best time, 2:16 1-2.

The special event of the day was the effort by the pacer Johnson to lower his record of 2:10 made at Chicago. The weather was conducive to fast time, but the track was too soft for the best work. Considering the fact that the track is not less than one and one-half seconds slow this year, Johnson's time was as good or better than his 2:10 at Chicago. The first mile was made in 2:20; second mile in 2:11 1-4; third mile in 2:12 1-4.

Chicago Races.

CHICAGO, ILL., August 15.—First Race—One mile, for non-winners at Chicago: Trix won; Midnight, second; Lady Morton, third. Time, 1:45 1-2.

Second Race—The Douglass Park Stakes for all ages, seven-eights mile: Avery, first; Conkling, second; Berlin, third. Time, 1:28.

Third Race—For all ages, one and one quarter miles: Leman, first; Boz Sedam, second; Athlone, third. The judges give Athlone second place on account of a foul by Boz Sedam's jockey. Time, 2:08 1-2.

Fourth Race—Selling race, one and one eighth miles: Manitou won; Mart Borham, second; Vergie Herne, third. Time, 1:58 1-2.

Saratoga Races.

SARATOGA, N. Y., August 14.—The weather is clear and warm and the track in good condition. Attendance large.

First Race—Purse of $400; two-year, three-quarter mile: Won by Verano, first; Tillie Doc, second; Irish Pat, third. Time, 1:18. Mutuals paid $10.20.

A Proper Spirit.

DENVER, COL., August 15.—At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Union Pacific strikers, a communication was read from S. H. H. Clark, the General Manager of the Union Pacific Company at Omaha, to the head of the organization there, in which he expressed a wish to meet one or more of the representative strikers, with a view of an amicable adjustment of difficulties. Two representatives were selected and left for Omaha immediately. Everything is quiet at the shops and on the streets.

Shops Closed.

KANSAS CITY, MO., August 15.—In accordance with orders received from Omaha, the Union Pacific shops at this point were closed yesterday. No explanation is given. About 300 men were employed at the shop. Wages are due from the last regular pay day.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY CONVENTION

The Republicans of the several townships of Macon county are requested to select delegates to attend a County Convention to be held at the Court House in Decatur, on Saturday, August 30th, 1884, at 1 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating one candidate for Representative in the Legislature from the 29th Senatorial and Representative District, one candidate for Circuit Clerk, one for State's Attorney, one for Surveyor and one for Coroner for Macon county. The representation in said convention will be based upon the vote cast for President Garfield, being one delegate for every 50 or fractional 25 votes or over. Each district and township will be entitled to the following delegates, to-wit:

Decatur—1st District,	9	Long Creek	3
" 2d "	7	Macon	4
" 3d "	6	Maroa	5
" 4th "	4	Milam	1
Austin	1	Mt. Zion	2
Blue Mound	3	Niantic	2
Friends Creek	4	Oakley	3
Hickory	2	Pleasant View	3
Harristown	2	Wheatland	3
Illini	3	Whitmore	3

For the purpose of securing a full and fair expression of the Republicans of Macon county it is urged by the committee, in all districts where a large Republican vote is polled, and more especially in the Decatur Districts, that no person be permitted to participate in the primaries except those who will agree to support the ticket entire as selected at the Republican County Convention.

The board of supervisors having created a new voting district in Decatur township necessitates the selection of an additional member of the Central Committee at the primary to be held by the voters of the present First District of Decatur.

It is earnestly desired that every member of the Republican Central Committee be present at the County Convention, as business of importance will be transacted.

M. F. KANAN, Chairman.

JOHN A. BARNES, Secretary.

What One Veto Did.

The Irish World has a cartoon in its issue of August 16th well worth study. It represents Cleveland as the vetoer of important measures passed by a Republican legislature of the state of New York. Under it is this remarkable statement of a street car driver, whose hours of labor are 15 to 17 hours per day for the seven days of the week:

"When Gov. Cleveland is sleeping in the morning I am at work. When he is attending to his duties through the day, I am at work. When he goes to a place of amusement in the evening, I am at work, and when he retires to rest at night I am still working. I have a little girl five months old, and during my working days I have never seen her smile, never seen her dark blue eyes, and never had her in my arms but twice, and yet this is a Christian land! Governor Cleveland's veto has condemned us to a life in which there is no hope, no joy, no chance of improvement."

The moaning and pathos of these words need no comment. To any one with a heart to feel for his fellow men they arouse a feeling of opposition to the promotion to power of a man who could thus burthen even a small number of his fellows. For, the disposition which enslaves a few would enslave all, if it had the power.

Dangerously Hurt

Last evening a serious accident occurred in the Wabash yard. Charles Hill, foreman of a switch engine crew, had directed one of his men to lift a coupling pin holding two flat cars together. The man could not pull the pin, and then Hill did it himself. The engine slacked up suddenly, and the cars separating, Hill fell off the car between the rails. Part of the breaking gear of a moving car caught Hill at the breast and dragged him a considerable distance. When released it was found that Hill's limbs had been paralyzed and that besides the outward bruises inflicted he had been hurt internally. He spit blood for some time. Dr W. J. Chenoweth attended him at his home at the Thomas Lee residence Hill was resting comfortably this forenoon Only one of his legs is paralyzed to day He has a wife and child.

MR JAMES MILLIKIN, who has been sojourning at Clifton Springs, N. Y, arrived home this morning after a month's absence He spent part of Wednesday and that night at Indianapolis With reference to the political outlook in New York, he is confident that the Republicans will carry that state by a large majority, and says if the election was held to day, Blaine would sweep it by 100,000 majority. He is constantly gaining strength there On arriving at Indianapolis, Mr Milliken found the people greatly stirred up because of the wilfully libelous article published in the Indianapolis Sentinel against Mr. Blaine The leading Democrats as well as the Republicans of that city and state, unite in condemning the reckless publication by the Sentinel editor The Democrats are dispirited and sick of the situation, and all agree that the libel can only result in injury to the state and National ticket. The order from Mr Blaine received there yesterday to institute legal proceedings immediately against John C Shoemaker, the Sentinel editor, caused a sensation and created more or less consternation among the bummer element of the Democratic party Gen Harrison has been secured to represent Mr Blaine, and he will make it particularly warm for Shoemaker, who will be arrested under the criminal law of Indiana which applies to parties publishing libelous statements

THE MEETING TO-NIGHT

Dedication of Republican Headquarters—Speech by Hon George Hunt

The Republican Headquarters at 249 North Main street will be formally dedicated this evening, and it is desired that all voters, the members of the various Republican clubs, and also the ladies be present to hear the address to be delivered by Hon George Hunt, of Paris, candidate for attorney general

The exercises will be held at the Club room A large number of chairs will be provided for the crowd

Let all voters and the ladies turn out There will be instrumental music and singing by the Glee Club

Democratic Committee Meeting

At the called meeting of the Democratic County Central Committee, held yesterday, Hon B K Durfee was chosen chairman for two years and R Eugene Pratt secretary H W Waggoner, Edward Harpstrite and Charles P Housum were appointed as members of the finance committee The members of the executive committee are M P Funk, of Maroa John P Faris, of Niantic, J N Baker, B K Durfee and R E. Pratt, of Decatur On motion it was ordered that the county nominating convention be held on Thursday, Aug. 28th

YESTERDAY afternoon Henry Gowan and Peter Welsh engaged in a bloody fight on South Main street Welsh struck Gowan and the latter, it is alleged, cut the former over the eye with a knife Both rolled in the street and clawed each other Officer Hartley placed both combatants in jail and to day each was fined $4 00 and costs

MISSIONARY tea party this evening at the residence Mrs W J Brown, South Main street

OFFICER ACKER arrested a party from the country yesterday He was staggering drunk, and had in his possession a heavy valise, which the officer lugged to the jail with the prisoner On opening the valise which is quite large, it was found to contain a gallon jug of whisky, and nothing else The prisoner's home is at some point between Boody and Blue Mound

THERE were something less than one hundred lemonade and candy stands near the circus tent yesterday, not mentioning the "small fry' stands presided over by enterprising small boys in different parts of the city The boys sold the clearest and best lemonade

TWIN servants of pain are those dread fal diseases, inflammatory rheumatism and neuralgia They are met in every walk and station in life, and baffle ordinary attempts to heal them In Athlophoros has been found the conquering agent It attacks the seat of disease, which is in the blood, and drives out the foreign substances that have poisoned and inflamed it This is the secret of the success that has everywhere attended the use of this wonderful medicine

Capt Zoss in Europ

The following is from the pen of the Mt Pulaski correspondent of the Lincoln Herald

Capt George P Zoss arrived home from his European tour yesterday This trip proved most enjoyable. In discussing American politics while abroad, he found the people and the press almost universally in favor of the Democratic nominees European sentiment is evidently not Republican, and to be accounted for in a great measure by their monarchial surroundings and the further fact that nearly all quotations of American affairs are copied from the few leading Democratic papers, such for instance as the New York Herald, etc Again, the free trade doctrine of that party catches the business interest of the old world Free trade in America would be so much solid cash to them and that much less cash to the laborers of this country.

THE Decatur creamery is still inactive, and will continue so until some enterprising party comes along and takes hold of it.

NEW fall goods just received, of the latest design, and will be made upon the latest style and fit. Look at the appearance of my coats on the street, and it will convince you of where you ought to get your clothes made, and that is at James Veale's, the French Cutter from Cork, 142 West Prairie street. He does not deny his nationality aug9-d2m

The Festive Circus.

The Forepaugh show gave two excellent performances in Decatur yesterday in the presence of large crowds, and today the city is comparatively quiet. The menagerie, with its herd of 27 elephants, including the "Light of Asia" (the small white elephant) was very fine, and the circus performance as a whole was creditable The favorites in the ring were Nala Damajaute, the Hindoo snake charmer, the $100,000 challenge herd of performing elephants, the elephant brass band, the clown elephant that sat down frequently to get a rest, the wild Arabs, and George Jagendorfer, the Australian Hercules, a wonderfully strong man. Each performance closed with a variety of races including the Roman chariot contests Considerable interest centered in the inspection of the white elephant. It is of a lighter color than the African species, but it lacks a good deal of being white It is an Asiatic elephant. Its skin is soft Physicians who have examined it say there is no evidence of disease perceptible.

Steam Plowing

To morrow, Saturday, Aug. 16, on the farm of E Dunkel, ¼ mile west of Emery, and eight miles north of Decatur, Archer & Locher, assisted by the general agent, J F Forbes, will start a Steam Plowing Rig, consisting of the Geiser Engine, "Peerless,' and a gang of six plows. Without doubt this is the finest and most powerful traction engine ever brought to Macon county. It is capable of hauling over our common roads forty thousand pounds, is rigged with cab and head light and with independent pump The boiler is steel with steel fire-box, and has never been matched in any test yet made with traction engines As there are a number waiting for this notice, which will be too short for many who desire to see the work, we would add that Mr Dunkel will plow near 200 acres before going at other work with the engine, and it can be seen plowing any day during the coming week on his farm at Emery.

THE Teachers' Institute reached a final adjournment this afternoon. It has been in session two weeks, and all agree that it has been one of the most interesting and profitable of any institute held in any previous year

BEYOND LIFE'S LIMIT

Death of a Venerable Citizen—David Shellabarger

It was announced in these columns a few days ago that Mr David Shellabarger was then lying dangerously ill at his residence, resulting from a stroke of paralysis affecting his entire left side received some years ago Yesterday he died at his home, 726 North Main street, paying the great debt of Nature at the advanced age of nearly 77 years

Mr Shellabarger, who was the father of David S Shellabarger and Mrs Samuel Diller, of Decatur, Joseph L Shellabarger, of Topeka, Kansas, John B. Shellabarger, of Salina, Kansas, Mrs G Frank Hargis, of Wellington, Kas, Mrs John Black, of Springfield, Ill, and Mrs. Albert E Henkle, of Salina, Kas, had lived in Decatur since 1862 He was born in Cumberland county, Penn, April 6, 1808, and in 1830 at the age of 22 he wedded Miss Catherine Byerly, who survives him The couple came to Decatur in 1862, as above stated, and have since resided here Mr Shellabarger was interested in the dry goods business in this city for about five years, retiring in 1871 In all his long and useful life the deceased was an active and useful citizen, being public spirited and enterprising, always taking a lively interest in the prosperity of his children who have to a large degree inherited the business tact of their worthy father

In 1866 Mr Shellabarger embraced the Christian religion during the Rev L C Pitner revival and later united with Stapp's Chapel, of which congregation he has since been a consistent and useful member,

The funeral will take place from Stapp's Chapel on Saturday, Aug 16, at 2 p m, Rev W H Webster officiating.

A REUNION of the survivors of the Thirty Second Illinois Infantry Regiment—the first since the war—will be held in Chicago, Aug 26 to 29, in connection with the reunion of the soldiers of the Northwest Good quarters will be provided for all who will attend, and meals can be procured for twenty five cents on the grounds All members of the regiment who will attend please address John S Phelps, room 24, Custom House, Chicago

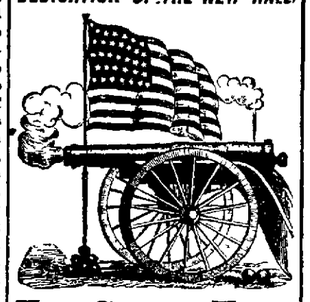
RALLY TO-NIGHT!

DEDICATION OF THE NEW HALL.



HON. GEORGE HUNT,

OF PARIS,

Nominee for Attorney-General,

—AT—

REPUBLICAN HEADQUARTERS

Friday Evening, August 15th

Let all voters turn out and hear the political issues of the times discussed by the next Attorney-General, who is an eloquent and able speaker The ladies are also invited.

PERSONAL MENTION

Cyrus Randolph is in the city, having arrived yesterday from the East.

Mrs. Joseph Jones, of Maroa, wife of 'Squire Jones, is dangerously ill.

Miss Katie Day, of Moweaqua, has been visiting in Decatur this week.

Mrs Hiram B. Cole and children are in Indianapolis, visiting relatives.

Hon. Charles Tenney, of Bement, will lay the corner stone of the new Masonic Temple at Maroa on Tuesday next.

Ald Lake spent yesterday at Sullivan He left at 10 40 a. m and missed seeing the circus parade.

Mayor Chambers arrived home yesterday from a business trip to Lafayette and Chicago

Stanton Fields sold lemo lemo near the circus tent until a late hour last night and left the grounds hoarse and tired

Hon Job A Race, of Pana, had to come to Decatur yesterday to see the white elephant.

John W. Culbertson, of Macon, is another Republican who has four sons, who will unite with him in voting for Blaine and Logan

James Hiatt, the stock writer who has been brought into notoriety recently, was in Lincoln on Thursday for Wallace's Monthly, a stock journal

A T Risley got home from Canada yesterday. He says the Canadians favor the election of Cleveland, because they fear that Blaine, if elected, will twist the tail of the British lion, and because he is a protectionist.

Dr J H Axton was overcome by the heat at the circus yesterday afternoon, and was compelled to seek the entrance for fresh air. He lay in the shade nearly an hour, and recovered from the effects of close quarters

Bloomington Pantagraph H O Hoffman received a handsome $125 gun and accoutrements while at Hillsboro last week The outfit was presented to him by Mrs George M Raymond, whose husband was an intimate friend of Mr Hoffman

Dr A. McBride, formerly of Forsyth, who has been located at Carthage, Mo, for some years, has returned to this county, and will practice his profession at Oreana The Doctor is a democrat, but he didn't like the sort of democrats that grow in Missouri

Maroa News Miss Emma Jones, a charming young lady of Decatur, who has been visiting with Miss Bertie Johnson for the past week returned to her home on Wednesday, accompanied by Miss Bertie, who will remain for some time and visit her many friends in Decatur

A Hungry Detective.

The citizens of Logan county are well acquainted with the detective, W. V Esmond, alias Mark Felton, who figured so conspicuously in the Zura Burns case by his work for the prosecution and defense. Last week he sent a bill down from Chicago to L C Schwerdtfeger for collection. He desired $100 more from O A Carpenter for services rendered Mr. Schwerdtfeger was no sooner made his attorney than he resigned, but for the sake of curiosity he consulted with Carpenter's attorneys on the subject, when a receipted bill for "services rendered, in full" was shown The little rogue made considerable money out of the affair and is now attempting to draw more Perhaps he desired to raise money enough to carry him to this city next month when his trial for obtaining money from the county under false pretenses will come up in the circuit court —Lincoln Herald

"A Bird's Eye View

C S Haines sends us a valuable lithograph "bird's eye view' of the town of Cheney, Washington Territory, which may be seen at this office Mr. Haines writes

"Cheney, the county seat of Spokane county, is pleasantly located in the midst of the best farming country north of Snake river, and is the trading point for an extensive region For the few weeks past business has been rather dull, but as the crops are turning out better than expected our merchants expect a large trade this fall We still have room for more business men. No point I have seen offers more inducements for wide awake business men than this place Letters from persons intending to move here will receive prompt attention if addressed to Percival & Andrus '

It's a secret nostrum. We speak of Dr Pierce's Extract of Smart-Weed, composed of best French Brandy, Smart-Weed, Jamaica Ginger and Camphor Water It cures cholera morbus, colic or cramps in stomach, diarrhœa, dysentery or bloody flux, and breaks up colds, fevers and inflammatory attacks.

Missionary Tea.

The ladies of the Missionary Society of the Presbyterian church will give a Tea and Sociable on Friday afternoon, August 15th, from 4 30 until 10 30, at the house of Mrs Wm J Brown, 327 South Main street. Tea served at 6 30. A fee of 25 cents will be charged for the tea. All friends of the cause and church are cordially invited. aug13 d3t

THE circus left for Jacksonville this morning It will exhibit at Springfield Saturday, and after showing in Indiana, Ohio, Canada, Massachusetts and Connecticut, will close at Yonkers, New York, on October 11.

WHAT will stop my coughing at night? Burks' White Pine Balsam, 50 cents.

"That Husband of Mine," writes a lady, "is three times the man he was before he began to take Burks' White Pine Balsam for his lungs. For sale by H. B Cole. 29

STEEL NAILS

We want everybody who uses Nails in large or small quantities to call at our store and get a Sample box of STEEL CUT NAILS.

Any size or kind will drive into the hardest wood when an iron nail will not They will clinch, and yet when driven are very rigid

The head of the Steel Nail cannot be snapped off, nor will the points split in driving.

The Steel Nail will not damage by rust to such an extent as an iron nail

The advantages of the Steel Nail are too apparent to require argument There are no imperfect nails in a keg, every nail will do its work.

This nail is now conceded to be the perfect nail of the period If you will examine and test them, their superiority over the iron nail will not fail to demonstrate itself

Don't!

DON'T Think, just because you have been suffering terribly with Rheumatism or Neuralgia, that you must always continue to suffer

Nor think just because nobody has been able to cure you or your friends, that Neuralgia and Rheumatism are incurable.

DON'T Think that a cure is impossible just because the physicians have been unable to accomplish it.

Nor think that because ATHLOPHOROS has not been known ever since the foundation of the world, it will not cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia.

DON'T Neglect the testimony of the hundreds of sufferers who have tried ATHLOPHOROS and are now sound and hearty

Nor think that because you have tried fifty other things that failed, that ATHLOPHOROS is like them.

Don't be discouraged! The very thing that will cure Rheumatism and Neuralgia is ATHLOPHOROS.

Don't be Skeptical! ATHLOPHOROS has cured others. It will Cure YOU.

If you can not get ATHLOPHOROS of your druggist we will send it express paid, on receipt of regular price—one dollar per bottle. We prefer that you buy it from your druggist; but if he hasn't it, do not be persuaded to try something else, but order at once from us as directed.

CHICAGO Inter Ocean, August 12 For some time the Democrats have been threatening, if the Republicans did not let up on Cleveland's moral leprosy, to retaliate with something awful on Blaine The threatened thunderbolt of wrath was hurled Sunday last by the Chicago Times. A series of affidavits was produced going to show that thirty four years ago Mr. Blaine, then a professor in a military school at Blue Lick Springs, Ky, was too intimate with Miss —— (name not given), who disappeared from that region soon after and has never been heard of For aught that appears she went in search of Morgan, and is still hunting for that lost, strayed, or stolen citizen The article added, "The affidavits are in the possession of the Times, and can be inspected by any one who has a right to see them." Yesterday a Chicago lawyer of good standing and Republican sympathies, but who is not a politician, Mr W. O Robinson, called at the Times office with the request to be shown the affidavits. The managing editor refused to show them, and when pressed declared that they were "in the hands of our lawyer," refusing to disclose the name of the lawyer. Mr. Robinson was not commissioned by any one to make the call, but went simply to satisfy himself as to the genuineness of the affidavits The Times might as well come down at once Long before the campaign closes the exact facts will be known Trumped up charges can not be sustained by fictitious documents without being exposed and reacting. The Morey dodge can not be played at this stage of the campaign.

American Wine in Europe

Mr Speer, the New Jersey producer of Port Wine, has an offer from certain capitalists to purchase all his wine for shipment abroad. They claim Mr. Speer's wines are unexcelled by any production in the world Orders from Dresden and other parts of Europe have been filled by Mr Speer during the past year, and they have become very popular on the other side on account of their valuable medical properties Mr Speer refuses to sell his wines to one firm or sell out his business, his being the only Oporto Grape Vineyards in this country He claims that as he has spent twenty six years of his life in bringing these grapes to perfection in this country and to mature a wine, that he will not at this time of life let go out of the family one of the handsomest vineyards in the world that will be a boon for generations to come. A CORRESPONDENT who visited Mr. Blaine's house at Augusta, Me, writes that it is neither in the midst of the finest residences on that thoroughfare, nor is it the finest house in its immediate neighborhood; and yet it is neat, commodious and well located. It is composed of two commodious square frame buildings, each surmounted by a cupola, and connected by a narrower structure, which was originally an L to the larger part of the house standing nearest the street. The other square building was added a few years ago when it was found that more room was needed, and Mr Blaine did not think it best to tear down and build a greater house The house is painted a gray drab, and stands on the side of an ample lot that extends to the next corner, carpeted with a well kept green sward, and liberally studded with trees. A picket fence surrounds this lawn, and an easy, swinging gate opens upon a pair of terrace steps, immediately at the top of which one finds himself before a heavy door, and the plate inscription tells him it is the home of "J. G. Blaine"

MR BERNARD CURTIS, an Irish citizen of Chicago, while at Des Moines, Iowa, a few days ago, was interviewed by a reporter of the State Register of that city in reference to the attitude of the Irish people on National questions. Mr. Curtis closed a somewhat lengthy interview with the following statement "I am very much surprised to find a great number of Irishmen declaring for Blaine and Logan and ready to work for the Republican ticket. My opinion is that the Irish vote will be a great surprise to the Democrats this fall. As to the result, I have not the slighest doubt of the election of Blaine and Logan by a handsome majority. I am confident from what I know of New York that Mr Blaine will carry that state, and if he does, of course, there is no possible chance for Mr Cleveland"

THE GREAT METROPOLIS

As Seen by a Decatur Man

CHICAGO, ILL, AUG 15, 1884

ED HERALD:—I have just been thinking that every man who intends to vote for Carter Harrison for governor ought to visit Chicago before he does so Here he can see a practical test of what Mr Harrison considers government As mayor of Chicago he is governor of one sixth of the population of the state governor of a population greater than that of Nebraska and equal to that of Colorado Delaware Nevada and Oregon combined as great as that of both Florida and Rhode Island And how does he govern this city? There was a time when particular districts were designated "slum holes," now the entire city is a slum hole I remember when people spoke of Chicago that South Clark street was mentioned as the habitat of vice Clark street no longer has a corner on crime every street from Wabash avenue to twelfth ward vies with it successfully The police force is in entire sympathy with this state of things, and if the mayor is not he surely ought to appoint a police force that was not. If his raid on the gambling dens of McDonald and Mackin was the outburst of a holy zeal, surely he soon grew weary in well doing These gentlemen are running gambling dens now Why don't the mayor go for them? One need not go to South Clark street, where the frequent sign, "Beds 10 Cents" and a fragrance that would invite the hog cholera, indicate the character of the place, but everywhere loud mouthed crime, under the very eyes of the police shocks the eye and ear I have but little doubt there are dens of licentiousness in Decatur, but I have lived there nearly three years, and to save my life I could not tell where one of them is Here it takes a man a long time to find where they are not Last evening before dusk I stepped into a restaurant for a drink of water, presumably in a most respectable part of the city There were ladies in and I was green enough to take this fact as prima facie evidence the place was respectable the first words I heard were from a beautifully dressed female, and they were such as would bluster the tongue of a female dog of the yellow variety I did not get a drink Upon meeting a policeman in a few steps I asked him to point me to a decent restaurant where I could get supper and a drink of water "Sure an' aint the hull of em decent an respictable, sir" was his reply I asked him if the one just back of me was decent "Ah, to h—l wid yo," was the response I tell this merely to show how much such dives have to fear from Carter Harrison's police force

While it is true that Chicago is filled largely with a low class of foreigners, and that this is no fault of the mayor, there is no reason why seven-eighths of the police force of the city should be in sympathy with and largely of this low class, unless the mayor is himself in sympathy therewith The very looks of the man stamp him as low, and I do not believe he is

"One whose outward semblance doth belie
The soul's imminently"

The Rev. Dr Kittredge may have shot wide of the mark when he said from his pulpit here that Chicago contained 30 000 professional prostitutes but the fact remains that there is more preventable cussedness to the square inch here than any place else west of New York if not west of Paris

To contrast the character of the mail carriers with the policemen here gives one an idea of where the fault lies Sunday is a day for a general drunk Most of the policemen keep sober enough to swear, but some do not even do that

Chicago is indeed a beautiful place to one who looks at the six, eight, and ten-story buildings, the fountains, the parks, and the lake, but if one is in search of the beauty of politics he had better take the first train out.

Now if this be the way Carter Harrison governs one-sixth of our population, do the people want to extend his jurisdiction to the whole? I do not consider myself a Republican, at least not bound to support any party's nominees, am a free-thinker in politics and vote as I please, but I surely think, to extend the jurisdiction of the present mayor of Chicago over the entire State would be, to us, a dire calamity

As to Mr Hobbs, his career as a member and president of the Board of Trade here has been too brilliant financially to stand a very severe moral test. As a corner of wheat he will do, but for that very reason his choice as a prohibition candidate was most unhappy. I am sorry to say Some of the temperance people here claim his transactions have all been real and honorable but most of them acknowledge, what the record shows, that he has been one of the heaviest speculators (i e gamblers) in wheat In view of the fact that such speculations, by creating false prices in flour and provisions, cost the people as much as the liquor traffic does, and in view of the fact that the legislature is to be petitioned to control these Boards of Trade I can but think Mr Hobbs would not make a good governor

Yours, respectfully,
BERT STEWART

Rev. Father Wilds' EXPERIENCE.

The Rev. Z. P. Wilds, well-known city missionary in New York, and brother of the late eminent Judge Wilds, of the Massachusetts Supreme Court, writes as follows:

"78 E 54th St, New York, May 16, 1882.
MESSRS J C. AYER & CO, Gentlemen
Last winter I was troubled with a most uncomfortable itching humor affecting more especially my limbs, which itched so intolerably at night, and burned so intensely, that I could scarcely bear any clothing over them. I was also a sufferer from a severe catarrh and catarrhal cough, my appetite was poor, and my system a good deal run down. Knowing the value of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA, by observation of many other cases, and from personal use in former years, I began taking it for the above named disorders My appetite improved almost from the first dose. After a short time the fever and itching were allayed, and all signs of irritation of the skin disappeared. My catarrh and cough were also cured by the same means, and my general health greatly improved, until it is now excellent. I feel a hundred per cent stronger, and I attribute these results to the use of the SARSAPARILLA, which I recommend with all confidence as the best blood medicine ever devised. I took it in small doses three times a day, and used, in all, less than two bottles I place these facts at your service, hoping their publication may do good.
Yours respectfully,
Z. P. WILDS"

The above instance is but one of the many constantly coming to our notice, which prove the perfect adaptability of AYER'S SARSAPARILLA to the cure of all diseases arising from impure or impoverished blood, and a weakened vitality.

Ayer's Sarsaparilla

cleanses, enriches, and strengthens the blood, stimulates the action of the stomach and bowels, and thereby enables the system to resist and overcome the attacks of Scrofulous Diseases, Eruptions of the Skin, Rheumatism, Catarrh, General Debility, and all disorders resulting from poor or corrupted blood and a low state of the system.

The Root Soap

WILL WASH IN HARD

AS WELL AS SOFT WATER.

This soap is taken from the Mexican Palmea or soap root, and contains no animal fat. As a toilet soap it is superior to anything yet offered to the public. While its cleansing capacity is 6 times greater than any soap made from alkali and grease, it contains nothing that would injure the most delicate skin on the contrary, it will cure chapped hands, pimples, sunburn and all diseases of the skin After washing with this soap a short time the skin becomes smooth and soft, rendering the complexion clear and beautiful. It will be found valuable as a hair wash, in renovating and preventing dandruff. Its great purity and freedom from mineral and animal substances makes it the most desirable article for the infant bath that can be procured It is the cheapest soap you can buy, because it will go further and give better satisfaction than any other Don't fail to give it a trial.
